DESTINATION & ROUTE

Himachal Pradesh Overview & Experience

4 Days in Kangra: Monastery Lanes, a Triund Camp, and Billing Ridge

This is the Kangra loop that usually takes two separate weekends: Little Lhasa, a ridge camp under the Dhauladhars, and Bir by the third night. You reach McLeod Ganj after an overnight drive, with the afternoon free for the flea market, Bhagsu Waterfall, the Dalai Lama monastery, and the cafe lanes. Dinner is at the hotel.

Gateway Rendezvous: Travellers join from across India for this 4 days / 3 nights trek to McLeod Ganj, Triund & Bir, Himachal Pradesh. Batches usually meet in Delhi for the overnight run. You can join at Aut or Chandigarh if you confirm the meeting point on WhatsApp.

TRAVELLER QUERIES

Frequently Asked Questions

Common questions regarding trail safety, accommodations, packing, and connectivity.

Is this trip good for solo travellers?

Yes. Most travellers on this departure join on their own. You are paired with companions of the same gender in the hotel, the Triund camp, and the Bir homestay, based on quad, triple, or double sharing. A private room can be requested on WhatsApp if you want one.

What fitness level does the Triund trek need?

Triund is a moderate walk, about 7 km up and 7 km down, with roughly 900 m of climbing from McLeod Ganj to the 2,850 m ridge. The trail is well used, with rocky sections near the top. If you can walk for a few hours with a light daypack, you can do this day. Billing and the Bir time are by vehicle, apart from the optional flight.

Is it comfortable for solo women?

Women share the hotel room, camp, and homestay only with other women unless a private room is booked. The group stays together from pickup until the return drop.
